We're here to make it simple so you can make an easy, confident choice. This guide provides tools and resources to help

BE SMART about your coverage

Up until now, you likely had some type of coverage through your employer or other sources. As you transition into retirement, you will want to anticipate the type of coverage you may need and the resources available to you as you move through your retirement. We can help you assess what you have, what you will require, and when you will need it. Through its Medicare exchange, SelectQuote Senior provides unbiased price comparisons from numerous A-rated insurance carriers to deliver competitive rates on health insurance plans. Working together, we can estimate what your plans might cost and prepare you for retirement.

UNDERSTANDING

Medicare: What is it?

Before you look into a Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan, it's important to understand what Medicare covers and the costs you may incur when utilizing Medicare services. Simply stated, Medicare is a health insurance program offered by the federal government.

It covers:

- ◆ People 65 and older.
- ◆ People under 65 with certain disabilities.
- ◆ People of any age with End Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) requiring kidney dialysis or kidney transplant.

THE MANY PARTS OF MEDICARE: A QUICK OVERVIEW.

Medicare Part A covers inpatient treatment in a variety of settings including hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, hospice, and other inpatient facilities. Medicare Part A involves deductibles and co-pays, including a $1,184 deductible per benefit period and up to $592 per day for long-term hospital stays over 90 days.

Medicare Part B is health insurance that covers doctor visits, exams, immunizations, checkups, and durable medical equipment. Like Part A, Medicare Part B involves out-of-pocket expenses including a monthly premium, a $147 annual deductible and typically 20 percent of the total cost of your care.

Medicare Part D is prescription drug coverage. These plans reduce your overall health care costs by lowering the cost of your prescriptions. Each plan can vary by cost and drug coverage.

Medicare Advantage plans, sometimes called "Part C" or "MA Plans," are offered by private, Medicare-approved companies. A Medicare Advantage plan provides all of your Part A and Part B coverage. Part D prescription drug coverage is sometimes included as well. Each plan can charge different out-of-pocket costs and have different rules for how you get services.

Medicare Supplement insurance, also called "Medigap," is a private policy designed to pay some or all of the health care costs that Original Medicare doesn't cover. It helps with expenses like co-payments, co-insurance and deductibles. Medicare Supplement plans can drastically reduce your financial liability, particularly during a prolonged hospitalization.

- * All deductibles and co-pays valid as of 2013
-  In addition to the monthly premium associated with a Medicare Advantage Plan, or Medicare Supplement Plan and/or Prescription Drug Plan, you must continue to pay your Medicare Part B premium.

WHAT ARE YOUR MEDICARE OPTIONS?

The two main ways to get your Medicare coverage are: Original Medicare or a Medicare Advantage Plan. The chart on the following page can help you visualize your choices.

Your Medicare Coverage Choices

STEP 1: Decide how you want to get your coverage.

STEP 3: Decide if you need to add supplemental coverage.

If you join a Medicare Advantage Plan, you don't need and can't be sold a Medigap policy.

INSURANCE POLICY

When it's time to select your health plan, think about how it will fit into your lifestyle.

Some things to consider:

◆ COVERAGE

Are the services you need covered?

♦ COST

How much are your premiums, deductibles, and other costs for things like doctor visits or hospital stays? What's the yearly limit for out-of-pocket costs?

◆ TRAVEL

Does the plan cover you in another state or outside the U.S.?

◆ CHOICE OF DOCTOR AND HOSPITAL

Do your doctors accept the coverage? If not, are the doctors you want to see accepting new patients? Do you have to select your hospital and health care providers from a network?

◆ PRESCRIPTION DRUGS

Do you need to join a Medicare drug plan? Will you pay a penalty if you join a plan later? What are your prescription drug costs and will they be covered?

◆ CONVENIENCE

Where are the doctors' offices? What are their hours? Which pharmacies can you use? Can you get your prescriptions by mail?

CONSIDER YOUR PRIORITIES

Think about what's most important to you, and rank each of the following categories in terms of importance. (1 is least important and 5 is most important.) If anything is missing from the list, add it in the "other features" space.

The price of co-pays/co-insurance	12345
The cost of your annual deductible	1 2 3 4 5
The cost of monthly premiums	12345
The cost of prescription drugs	1 2 3 4 5
Coverage for specialized services	12345
Coverage for specialized drugs	1 2 3 4 5
Retaining the same doctor or specialist	12345
Coverage away from home/while traveling	1 2 3 4 5
Other features:	1 2 3 4 5

When you enroll in a Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage program, certain tradeoffs are possible.

- ◆ Medicare Supplement plans typically offer more comprehensive coverage, can have higher monthly premiums and may require fewer out-of-pocket expenses. These plans do not include prescription drug coverage, so you will need to add a Medicare Part D plan to your coverage.
- ◆ Medicare Advantage plans have low monthly premiums as well as co-pays and co-insurance. Some people prefer these plans because of their lower upfront costs and out-of-pocket maximums. These plans typically include prescription drug coverage.
